

Presents

Downliners Sect—Dangerous Ground

The Downliners Sect were the ragged, rocking real deal, blasting out of England in 1964 on an early British wave that took their contemporaries the Rolling Stones, the Yardbirds, the Kinks, and the Pretty Things to rock and roll heights and history. But unlike their friends, the Sect stayed true to their rhythm and blues roots and the grungy glory of the two and a half minute record. Cool tracks like "Baby What's Wrong" and "Little Egypt" gave them stardom in Sweden, Denmark, and Norway and an enduring cult status everywhere else. Half a century later, they're still true to those roots and still fronted by founding members Don Craine and Keith Grant. The Sect survives, and SteadyBoy is thrilled to bring this album of tracks that only saw limited release in the nineties.

Dangerous Ground presents the band true to the spirit of American blues-based rock and roll with a British twist, sounding like early Rolling Stones, had they never abandoned the raw sound of their first several albums. Speaking of the Stones, Ronnie Wood's brother Art Wood painted the inspired Dangerous Ground cover.

Blues rock gets no more authentic, no more psychedelic, no more unrepentant than the Downliners Sect.

--Rush Evan, SteadyBoy Records

"The first British R&B I heard was the Downliners Sect. It was at the Ken Colyer Club, they were really doing it then. I heard the Pretty Things later but the Downliners Sect were it."

--Van Morrison

DOWNLINERS SECT- DANGEROUS GROUND (SB-0032)

Release date: January 18, 2011

Produced by

Don Craine, Keith Grant, Mike Burch

12-track version available on CD

10-track version available on vinyl

1. Keep on Rocking (Grant) 3:41
2. Escape from Hong Kong (Grant/Craigne) 4:52
3. In the Pits (Tiller) 3:21 (CD only)
4. Dangerous Ground (Dwyer) 4:11
5. Lucy's Bar Room (Craine/Dwyer) 4:02
6. Working on the Railroad (Trad. Arr. Grant/Craigne) 4:44
7. So Blue (Grant) 4:15
8. Ease Up (Craine/Dwyer) 3:22 (CD only)
9. Love with No Strings (Grant) 4:37
10. Quicksand (Grant/Craigne) 4:37
11. Daemon Lover (Craine/Dwyer) 4:13
12. Bookworm (Craine/Grant) 6:17

steadyboyrecords.com

fkrc@austin.rr.com

512.441.5619

Press/Publicity:

rushkevans@yahoo.com

512.964.7874

Burnside Distribution

6635 N. Baltimore Ave.---Suite 285

Portland, OR 97203 503.231.0876

Wholesale CD$7-9.40, LP $8-10:40

CD:

6

14511 77502

1

LP:

6

14511 77512

0